

How can the FCC allow Sinclair Broadcasting to air an anti-Kerry documentary just weeks before the election - Sinclair Broadcasting stations are broadcasted over the public airwaves and not over the cable system.

I can't believe that the FCC can condone this use of the public airwaves. This just demonstrates the dangerous consolidation of media organizations and the political bents of the executives/owners.

Regards.

Sophia Chiang